The Katikati Girl Guide Unit is a long-term client of St Paul's and have been renting a space on Mondays and Thursdays since April this year. There are a few young ladies in our youth group who has been part of the movement for a few years now as well as parent volunteers.

They are having a fundraiser event on November 8th to pay for activities for the girls. Please come a long if you are around and support them. You can also support them by donating baked goods to sell in the pop-up café that will run from our kitchen.

If you would like to know more or get involved in some way, please talk with Karen.
