

Annual Working Bee March 2026

Our annual working bee will be on Saturday, 14 March 2026. We would need all hands-on deck for a good deep clean and sort. Please start thinking about how you can be involved. Job registration can be found on the information table in the foyer.

- Together everyone achieves more
- Thank you for your joyful service

We are looking for more people to assist with small jobs around the grounds, please see Paul Parrish if you can assist.

ALPHA

Course

Wednesday 18 February

(each Wednesday from 7pm to 8.30 pm)
until Wednesday 6 May 2026.

The venue is 'The Hub' next to KK library.

This is a free course in a friendly, informal setting and will include coffee and dessert.

All welcome, come along and ask any question.

Where am I going? Does God really exist?
Is there more to life than this? What's my purpose?

Registration and attendance at the first session does not commit anyone to the course—come along and see what you think.

ZEUS

HAZEL

Due to moving, we are not able to keep our cats, so we are looking for a new home for them. They are siblings, about 2 years old, are very friendly, and have lived around other cats, dogs, chickens and children.

They are indoor and outdoor cats. Zeus (the boy) is extremely cuddly and playful. Hazel (the girl) is more independent and aloof. They are both desexed but have not been chipped or had any vaccinations
