DEEPER * STRONGER * WIDER

In response to God's grace and leading, by 2030, St Paul's Katikati will be a church that intentionally forms disciples who are growing deeper in their relationship with and experience of God. Helping identify and use strengths, gifts and opportunities, St Paul's will equip, support and encourage ALL members to provide gospel leadership in EVERY area of life (family, church, community, and beyond), to bring God's blessing and, by his grace, enable others to know, love and serve our God.

ALTERNATIVE GATHERING(S)

By 2028, St Paul's will have at least one other "primary worship gathering" (incl. expression of whānau).

SPIRITUAL VITALITY

By 2028, 75% of the St Paul's whānau will report a deepening personal relationship & experience of God.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

By 2028, 60% of the St Paul's whānau will report that they know & are joyfully serving with gifts & strengths in church & beyond.

MISSION TRAINING/ACTION

By 2028, St Paul's will have a regular pattern of training, supporting & actioning mission in KK & beyond.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

By the end of 2025, St Paul's Katikati will have developed a spiritual ecosystem intentionally designed to encourage deepening personal spiritual vitality (including a range of relational discipleship environments, intermittent courses, and fostering personal devotional practices).

VISION BUY IN

develop strategy for engaging the wider congregation with the vision

PRAYER

establish an intentional rhythm of prayer amongst the congregation for the vision

PROJECT LEADERSHIP

identify and appoint key leader(s) to oversee the development & implementation of plan

MINISTRY DESIGN

develop a plan that answers - why, what, when, how, who?
