Missions Update

HAVEN OF HOPE GIFTS

The mission desperately needs our support.

You can help by buying a gift, all beautifully embroidered.

On Sale in Church Foyer
Nov 7th, 14th, 21st and 28th

The graphic features a central logo for CMCT with the text "Compassion in Action" and "Working To Transform Lives" around a central emblem of a hand holding a heart. Below the logo, the text "HAVEN OF HOPE GIFTS" is written in large, bold, purple letters. Underneath, a message in black text asks for support, followed by a call to action in yellow and black text. The entire graphic is framed by vertical bars of purple and yellow diagonal stripes on the left and right sides.

CMCT November Update

Hi there! Please pass on our thanks to everyone at St Paul's for the gift of $1,500 for CMCT on October 19. We are so grateful too, for the effort you are making in selling crafts.

Years 11, 12 and 13 in High School in India finally opened for classes in October. Then the younger children all returned to school on Monday November 1. They have been out of school for a whole year and a half so this is massive. There are probably millions of happy kids all over India and very relieved parents (along with the anxiety that comes with opening up again.) Churches also reopened in India at the end of October.

Just yesterday morning we heard from CMCT that there is serious flooding in Chennai. From Saturday it has been raining heavily in city. Since all the reservoirs are full they have now opened the flood gates which has caused flooding in the city and many roads and homes are under water. It is expected to rain heavily for the next few days and all the schools and colleges are closed now. Many of the homes of the CMCT staff are flooded with water. It seems like they don't get a break! Once again, thanks for all your support in so many ways.

Blessings, Karen and Peter Brookes, Bethany CMCT
